Speakers

Marc Fabris National Manager, Zurich

Marc Fabris is the National Manager - Sales Strategies and Research for Zurich's Life Risk business. In this role he drives product development, liaises with risk researchers on product ratings, and is responsible for the development of adviser support tools and training programs.

He is a fellow of the Association of Financial Advisers, has a Diploma in Superannuation, and is studying a Bachelor of Business in Financial Planning.

His risk experience spans more than 20 years in marketing, product development, business development, and includes 8 years as a risk adviser.

Marc has been a contributor to the CCH Guide to Life Risk Protection, and regularly contributes articles to a variety of industry publications. Marc has also been involved in a number of working groups with the Investment & Financial Services Association (IFSA), and has been a member of the Protection Gap working group.

Over the last 8 years, Marc has worked closely with the AFA as a judge as part of Zurich's Adviser of the Year sponsorship, and conducts the on-site analysis of award nominees.

Zed Seselja Canberra Liberals Leader

Shadow Minister for Environment & Climate Change; Shadow Minister for Planning (including Transport Planning); Shadow Minister for Housing Affordability; Shadow Minister for Human Rights; Shadow Minister for Ageing; and Member for Molonglo.

Zed Seselja was born in Woden Hospital to Croatian immigrant parents, and he has lived in Canberra his entire life.

He entered politics to create a better future for his children and all Canberrans and believes that the Stanhope Labor Government has let many in the community down.

Zed is focussed on delivering solutions in three main areas: affordable housing, particularly for first home buyers; repairing the damage done to the public education system; and creating a world class health system.
