

Australia

September 29	Population growth (March quarter)	Population growth is easing from 40-year highs
September 30	Job vacancies (August quarter)	A key measure of demand for workers
September 30	Building approvals (August)	Have risen once in the past four months
September 30	RP Data/Rismark home prices (August)	Home prices are slowing to a more sustainable rate
September 30	Private sector credit (August)	Credit rose 0.1pct in July – the slowest pace in eight months
September 30	New home sales (August)	At the lowest levels in 19 months
September 30	Financial stability review	Reserve Bank's half-yearly assessment
October 1	Performance of Manufacturing (Sept)	Manufacturing is barely expanding at present

Overseas

September 28	US Case-Shiller home prices (July)	A closely-watched measure of home prices
September 28	US Consumer confidence (Sept)	May have edged higher from 53.5 to 54.0
September 30	US GDP (September quarter)	The data should confirm 1.6pct economic growth
October 1	US ISM manufacturing (Sept)	Economists tip the gauge to ease from 56.3 to 55.0
October 1	US Personal income (August)	Income and spending continue to grow despite a high jobless rate